OHIO BELL STRIKE SETTLEMENT NEAR

(By Associated Press) CLEVELAND, May 14.—Prospects for settlement of Ohio's phone strike brightened today with issuance of a statement by company and union officials that they were closer to an agreement than they have ever been before. The statement was released following a six-hour session that ended early today between representatives of Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and the Ohio Federation of Telephone Workers.

Governor Urges Highway Improvement Expansion

COLUMBUS, May 14.—Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today recommended the expenditure of an additional $81,568,616 for highway and building improvements. The state treasury will have only $6,000,000 to spare for this purpose. The legislature passes the general appropriation bill in its present form. This situation led Governor Herbert to remark that "some adjustments must be made" between the appropriation bill and the additional $81,568,616 expenditure. The $81,568,616 is in addition to $80,000,000 already appropriated for highway improvements. The figure was decided upon by the state finance division after it considered requests for $185,000,000 for improvements to highways, state institutions and universities.

Europe Looking To U. S. For Food, Rotarians Told

All European countries are waiting for the United States to restore their depleted food supplies, Ben Jones, manager of the foreign division of the Salem Engineering Co., told the Rotary club Tuesday. In describing the conditions he observed in Europe during a recent six week trip, Jones said that the lack of enough food is a leading factor in the slow return to full production in many places. He said that England is one of the poorest countries in Europe, and that it has been further ravaged by severe floods. Britain is now on full rations, fuel is low and coal almost non-existent.

TORNADO HITS FINDLAY; 17 ARE INJURED

Most of Victims Occupants Of Demolished Trailer Camp

(By Associated Press) FINDLAY, May 14.—A trailer camp was in ruins today and 17 of its residents were hospitalized, the result of a two-minute tornado that blitzed over the eastern rim of this northern Ohio city yesterday. The twister struck at 4 p. m. smashing 42 trailers and damaging three others slightly. Some victims were buried beneath their wheeled residences, but swift rescue action extricated them. Three of the 17 were injured seriously. Inside the city, three employees were injured in the collapse of a municipal barn and two women were hurt, one by window glass and the other by a falling tree. Hailstorm Hits First Preceded by a hailstorm the tornado dipped into the trailer camp from the southwest. Two minutes later, the funnel shaped wind mass had sped northeastward. A camp resident, Mrs. C. L. Wakefield, saw the roof of her trailer porch sucked up by the tornado. Then, the twister overturned the nearby dwelling of her daughter, Mrs. Kyle Linger. "Before I knew it, she and my granddaughter, Carol Sue, 5, were pinned underneath," Mrs. Wakefield related, adding she "rushed over and broke through the side of the trailer to pull them out." They were bruised slightly. The storm disabled power poles, shutting off electricity to half the city of 22,000. Trees were toppled and roofs blown from numerous buildings. Those Injured Those injured at the trailer camp were: (All residents of Findlay unless otherwise noted.) Mrs. Raymond Shuck, 29, and 7 months old daughter Teresa Ann. Kezin Griffith, 7, and brother Michael. Mrs. Orville Minard, 48. Mrs. Noble Wilkerson and two children, Danny and Penny. Mrs. Thomas Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Darold Kerr and daughter Ruth Ann, 3. Mrs. Evelyn Sparks. Carl Minard. Richard Clinger. Mrs. Annetta Pitzer. Mrs. Cora Smith, 46. Mrs. Noble Jones of Fostoria.

Blind Couple Argue, Husband Is Stabbed

Charges of stabbing with intent to wound were filed in Mayor R. R. Johnson court today against Mrs. John Widman, 29, who allegedly stabbed her husband, Gleason Wildman, 31, at about 5 p. m. Tuesday at their home on Prospect st. extension. Charges were filed today by Sheriff George Hayes, who investigated. Hayes said the stabbing occurred yesterday in the kitchen of the home following an argument between the couple. Salem City hospital attendants said the man had been stabbed twice, in the back just below the left shoulder and in the stomach, below the left ribs. A butcher knife with a 10-inch blade was used, the sheriff said. Wildman was treated at the hospital and released last night. His wound apparently were not serious. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wildman are blind and use a Pathfinder dog to guide them about the city.

Labor's Influence On Capitol Hill Wanes

They Hustled the Labor Bill Through the Senate

Leading Senate supporters of the Republican-sponsored labor bill are shown outside the Senate Chamber after the Senate passed the bill and returned it to the House: H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota, Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Irving M. Ives of New York.

At Lowest Point In More Than Decade, Actions In Congress Indicate

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Organized labor's influence with congress stands at its lowest point in more than a decade today. There are strong indications that stern curbs on union activity may be written into law even over a possible presidential veto. The 68 to 24 vote by which the senate yesterday approved its bill providing for extensive regulation of organized labor's activities almost exactly matched the percentage by which the house on April 17 voted a much more stringent measure. In the house, opponents cast 25.8 per cent of the 308 to 107 vote. In the senate, they registered 26 per cent.

Sharp Contrast

This core of support, representing only about one fourth of the membership of the two houses, marks a sharp decline from the days when unions could stop in one house or the other almost any legislation they regarded as punitive. Failing in that, they could muster the needed support to sustain a veto. This was demonstrated when the house failed 11 months ago to override President Truman's veto of the Case labor disputes bill. On that 255 to 135 tally, union supporters mustered several more than the one-third-plus-one of the votes they needed.

The Salem softball committee, appointed by Joe Kelley, has been making arrangements for the new recreational center, the first in the west end of the city.

LISBON, May 14.—Columbiana county, beginning July 1, will have a full-time health commissioner. The county board of health Tuesday night employed Dr. B. B. McGuire of North Carolina at a salary of $8,000. His wife has relatives in St. Clairsville, Belmont county, O. McGuire will replace Dr. Seward Harris of Lisbon, who has been serving in a part-time capacity as commissioner. Dr. Harris resigned last summer, until such time as a new commissioner could be named. Employment of a full-time health officer for Columbiana county was recommended last fall by the Columbiana County Public Health league, the county medical society and others interested in creating a centralized health board district.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Three young officers, their identities known only to a select few in the Army top bracket, are trying to visualize what war will be like 25 years from now. They will attempt a reasonable guess on the fantastic means of destruction science may devise for a possible new outbreak of combat between nations. Then they will give Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower a picture of the command problems such new horrors would involve. URGES PARTS OF MEASURE BE AMENDED

Congressional Legislation Bans Past, Future Suits For Portal Pay

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 14.—President Truman signed into law today legislation banning portal pay suits and sent congress a fresh request that it raise the minimum wage to 65 cents an hour. But in a message to congress the President expressed dissatisfaction with some provisions of the measure designed to outlaw both past and future suits for so-called "portal pay." He asked that congress enact new legislation to remedy them. More than $6,000,000,000 in suits were filed by unions for portal pay claims, but many of them have been withdrawn since the key case, brought by pottery workers at Mt. Clemens, Mich., was dismissed in federal court at the union's request. The suits sought pay for law workers spent preparing for work. Some made claims for such things as changing clothes. Others were for sharpening tools and similar activities.

Liability Avoided

Mr. Truman emphasized that he signed the measure whose purpose is "to relieve employers and the government" from potential liability "for billions of dollars in so-called portal-to-portal claims." At the same time, the President said, "some doubts have been expressed to me, however, concerning the effects of this legislation upon our wage and hour standards." He continued: "Prior to its adjournment last year, the congress had reached a large measure of agreement as to legislation to increase minimum wage standards. I trust that with the passage of the portal-to-portal act, relieving the business community of a heavy burden of doubt, the congress will now turn to a re-examination of minimum wage standards."

Clarified By Statute

Claims for back portal-to-portal pay, the President said, emerged after a judicial decision on the wage and hour law had raised the possibility that employers might be required to pay back wages "for certain activities which in most industries had not previously been considered by either workers or employers to be compensable." "In the interest of the economic stability of our nation, Mr. Truman said, "it is essential to clarify this matter by statute." With uncertainty over these claims ended, the President said. "Current wage negotiations can proceed more readily to a satisfactory conclusion and businessmen will be able to plan with assurance for full production and price reductions. "This will be of real value to labor and management in the maintenance of a continued high level of employment." Mr. Truman said he understood that section two of the act relating to existing claims was not intended "to invalidate all other existing claims." He added in explanation: "The plain language of section two of the act preserves minimum wage and overtime pension claims based upon activities which were compensable in any amount under contract, custom or practice."

Pinning Down The Lie

Russian movie-makers are making a film based on the Kremlin's lie that Allied invasion of Europe was postponed until 1944 to give Germany time to bleed Russia white before rescuing it. Winston Churchill is represented as the villain, Franklin D. Roosevelt as the helpless puppet in this version.

It's no secret that Mr. Churchill never liked the government of the Soviet Union. But it never has been any secret either that the government of the Soviet Union loosed Hitler on Europe and Great Britain by making a non-aggression treaty with Germany when Mr. Churchill's country was trying desperately to prepare its defense. That treaty left Britain and France alone against the world's strongest military power. It was the cause of Britain bearing the brunt of the war until the United States could pull abreast of events, a struggle in which it was handicapped heavily by the sabotage of Russia's sympathizers in its own population.

These same sympathizers, after Hitler turned on his Russian ally, couldn't wait for the Allies to invade Europe across the English Channel, an operation which would have been suicidal any time before it began, in June 1944. In this attitude, too, the sympathizers put the interests of Russia first, the United States second, a fact Americans aren't likely to forget for a long time to come. The Soviet Union was bled white by a war it made possible. If it had joined Great Britain and France against Germany in 1939, instead of joining Germany, Hitler wouldn't have dared to go to war at all. Since it is obviously Communist intent to repeat and repeat and repeat one of history's biggest lies, to shift blame for Russia's war tragedy to a point outside the Kremlin, it is necessary to pin down the lie every time it's repeated. A similar lie about the Treaty of Versailles, repeated and repeated after World War I, ultimately became one of the causes of World War II because it wasn't pinned down often enough.

Lovett For Acheson

When the chief executive of the United States deplores the financial sacrifices of public service, as he did in accepting the resignation of Dean Acheson as undersecretary of state, it's time to acknowledge that the United States will get in the long run what it pays for—not much more.

Acheson was capable. He was valuable in his position. But he has been trying to quit for the last two years because he couldn't afford to hold down one of the world's toughest jobs for $9,000 a year. In the practice of law, he could make many times that much, so he is going to practice law. His successor will be Robert A. Lovett, who apparently can afford to work for the government; he previously served as assistant secretary of war.

Government service in a republic shouldn't be restricted to those who can afford it. Noblesse oblige was a credo for monarchies, not republics.

Wanted: Infantrymen

The Army's decision to reassign all qualified infantrymen to duty with infantry units points up the difficulty of keeping the military forces supplied with an adequate force of foot-soldiers.

A qualified infantryman gets a slick badge to wear and draws extra pay, but at present only 3.7 percent of volunteers ask for infantry duty. Far more popular are the technical services, the service forces and of course, the air corps. Even in peacetime, infantry training is no picnic and the duty is far from glamorous.

Battle-tested infantrymen wear their crossed-rifles with pride. More than any, they know what the insignia stands for. But they also know that, come war or peace, the assignment is a thankless one. That's why the infantry's ranks are depleted today.

Just Asking

Now that Secretary Marshall has been appointed an honorary member of the Class of 1947 at Wellesley College, the question arises as to what responsibilities and privileges this honor entails. Is it akin to being an admiral in the Nebraska navy without even knowing a binnacle from a pinnace? Is it like being a Kentucky colonel and never getting nearer an army post than Churchill Downs on Derby Day?

Or does being an honorary Wellesley class member entitle the dignitary to participate in the Greek dances on baccalaureate day, and mayhap even run anchor on the daisy chain? Or is the honor presented in anticipation of graduation day when the honorary classman wears cap and gown and gets some letters to affix after his name in return for one (1) free speech?

The foregoing questions are not asked in a spirit of petulance. They are motivated only by a wholesome curiosity about honorary memberships in general.

More On Oleo

In what may be a move to counteract some of the pressure for legalizing the sale of colored oleo in Ohio, there is in circulation a pamphlet titled "Colored Oleo Sold as Butter." The pamphlet, which has a cover the color of 92-score butter, is published by the National Cooperative Milk Producers Association.

Judging from its graphic illustrations, there are some very sinister people involved in the illegal aspects of the oleo industry—definite criminal types who skulk in the dark of the moon, mix their oleaginous messes in filthy cellars and even have access to bombs.

Actually, however, the facts set forth in the pamphlet are not germane to Ohio's case. Its very first statement says, "You have the right to buy oleomargarine if you wish . . . but you have the right to know that it is oleomargarine." That's fair enough.

We also have the right to buy artificial vanilla extract in lieu of pure if we wish. There are efficient controls to prevent mislabeling. And there is no lobby bringing pressure to bear on the legislature to require that all artificial vanilla be colored purple.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

DDT Treatment of a Distressing Condition

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

OF late years there has been what might be called an epidemic of head lice among school children in many of our large cities. When such a pest gets started it is always difficult to control, and thus it is interesting to read the experience of doctors elsewhere in dealing with the same condition.

An article by Dr. Arthur D. Frazer, condensed from the British Medical Journal by the Current Medical Digest, tells how 400 British patients were rid of head lice by D. D. T., the powerful insecticide developed by the U. S. Army during the war.

Other Preparations

While there are many preparations which can be used against the lice themselves, there are, unfortunately, few which will destroy the nits or eggs. D. D. T. has the advantage of killing both if left on the hair long enough.

Dr. Frazer has found a mixture of D. D. T., napha, an emulsifying agent, and water, to be an ideal treatment for head lice. The D. D. T. is not dissolved but rather held in suspension in the liquid by the emulsifier.

Strong Solutions

Long-continued contact with strong solutions of D. D. T. may be dangerous but, with proper caution, either powder or weak solutions may be used on the skin with perfect safety.

Before treatment is started women patients are advised to have a scarf in which to tie up the hair. While the emulsion employed is a clear, colorless fluid, it makes the hair straight or lank. The scarf is worn merely to save the patient embarrassment.

In applying the treatment, a protective apron is spread over the shoulders and the emulsion is then thoroughly worked into the hair and scalp with a soft brush. The next day the patient washes the hair with soap and water and returns for examination.

At this second visit, the hair is thoroughly combed with a fine comb. Two such combings may be needed if the head is heavily infested with the lice, but in practically all cases one treatment was sufficient to get rid of the infestation permanently.

Contact with the emulsion usually kills the lice in about one-half hour. Thus, the hair may be washed one hour after treatment and thoroughly combed with a fine comb which in most cases will be sufficient to eliminate the lice.

No reactions were seen except in one case where there was an extensive infection of the scalp. In this instance some swelling of the nose, forehead and eyelids occurred. However, this reaction disappeared within a few days.

This treatment, so rapid and easy, is also practically free from all danger. It should be a boon to all who suffer from head lice infestation and to doctors and nurses who must deal with them.

Letters to Dr. Bundesen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Death Of Swimmer Held
Due To Heart Failure

COLUMBUS, May 14—Coroner John B. Gravis said today that the death of Mark Frederick, 21, of Route 2, Fredericktown, in the Ohio State university natorium was caused by heart failure due to exertion.

The death yesterday was the first in the natorium's 16-year history. Frederick, a freshman in the College of Agriculture, was swimming in the intermediate pool with two other students, Richard Eschelman and James McLinden, both of Canton, O., Swimming Coach Mike Peppe said.

The two students reported that Frederick either fell or jumped into the pool after swimming across it and climbing out. They said they pulled him out within half a minute.

Weak, Watery Blood
Blamed for Making
Men and Women
Look and Feel Older

THAN THEIR YEARS

How do you feel at the end of a day? Is that old time pep and drive lacking? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Thousands now regaining glowing good looks and vitality through the release of vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a general run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Teletypewriters Work
PAINESVILLE, May 14—A strike by International Typographical union members against the Painesville Telegraph today entered its sixth day after editorial employees of the paper published a full edition yesterday for the fifth time by use of teletypewriter machines.

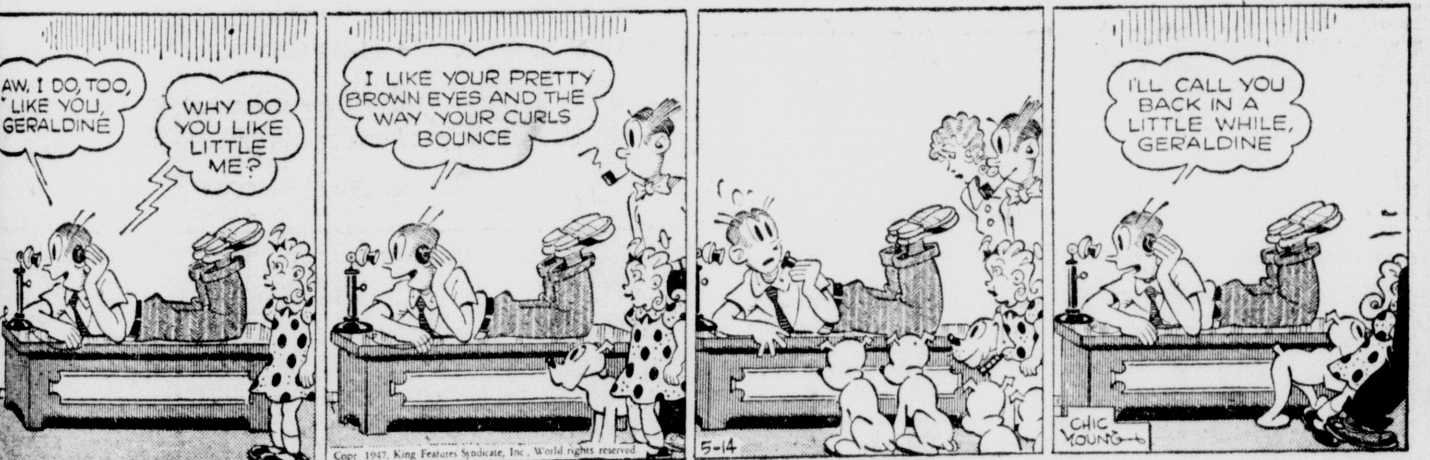

Unionists demanded an hourly wage increase of 25 cents, said a union spokesman. Current average rate of printers employed by the Telegraph is $1.25 hourly.

'Mac' To Stay On Job

Nearly $2,500,000 Lost By Ohio Bell Employees In The Strike

Repeated efforts of the Company to settle this strike – to avoid it in the first place – have been of no avail. Ohio Bell employees now have lost over $2,500,000 – over two and one-half million dollars.

The Company Tried To AVOID The Strike

FIRST, by offering an extension of contract while bargaining. Others did that, business was not interrupted, and wages to employees were not lost. That was refused and the telephone strike was called.

THEN, by offering to arbitrate the wage issue. Arbitration of wages by disinterested Ohioans would have been fair, business would not have been interrupted, and wages of employees would not have been lost.

The Company Tried To END The Strike

FIRST, by leaving open, from the start of the strike, its fair arbitration offer. The offer was withdrawn on May 7.

THEN, by substituting for arbitration a definite and detailed offer, briefly as follows—

- General wage increase of $4.00 per week.
- Voluntary pay roll deduction of union dues on individual authorization and without charge to the Union. The Company did not propose union shop, maintenance of membership or any other form of compulsory membership in a union.
- Wage increase to become effective the Sunday of the week in which the strike is terminated.
- Existing strike to be terminated and union members to return to work immediately.
- Nondiscrimination clause binding both on company and union.

In addition to GOOD WAGES the Company for years has provided . . .

- Seven Holidays with pay and double time for time worked on holidays; time and one-half for Sundays.
- Vacations with pay—one week the first year, two weeks the second year and on up to fifteen years when the vacation is three weeks with pay.
- Steady Work, the telephone job is steady the year around;
- Good working conditions, interesting work in clean, congenial surroundings;
- Sick benefits at Company expense—four weeks at full pay and nine weeks at half pay for employees with two years of service, increasing with service to a maximum of full pay for one year.
- Pension—one of the most liberal of plans with the full cost paid by the Company.

The Union's Response To The Latest Offer

A demand for $7.20 basic wage increase with $1.60 more reserved for town and job reclassification to be bargained out later—plus many other costly demands—an entirely unrealistic position in the present stage of things.

AND SO THE STRIKE HAS GONE ON WITH GOOD TO NOBODY. While the efforts of the United States Department of Conciliation and the proposals of the Company each time have been met with propositions that could not stand up under the tests of reason.

Back To Work

In many parts of the country telephone employees are returning to work. The offer made by The Ohio Bell is fair and generous under the circumstances. Telephone wages and working conditions already compare favorably with those in the communities in which the Company operates.

We said at the start — THE TELEPHONE STRIKE DOESN'T MAKE SENSE.

Now it will require nearly a year for employees to make up through increases in pay their losses in wages.

HOW MUCH LONGER IS THIS NEEDLESS STRIKE TO CONTINUE?

THE OHIO BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

We sincerely appreciate the continued co-operation and understanding of our customers.

Costs In Murder Trial Climb To About $2,000

LISBON, May 14.—Another court entry in the first degree murder case of Erwin Brown, now awaiting a life sentence to the Ohio penitentiary, increased the costs by $306 to approximately $2,000, with attorney fees of defense counsel yet to be allowed.

A statement for $255 was approved by Judge Joel H. Sharp to Dr. R. A. Olson, Youngstown psychiatrist, for examination and testimony, while the court had previously allowed Dr. R. E. Bushong of the Lima State hospital $100 as witness fees for expert testimony in the case.

Dr. Bushong, who with his staff examined Brown for a 30-day period, was called by the state, while Dr. Olson, was appointed to examine the defendant at the special request of defense counsel, and was called as a defense witness.

Judge Sharp also allowed a $50 witness fee to Dr. A. P. Falkenstein of Salem, for expert testimony as to causes of death of the victim, and had previously allowed a $50 fee to L. F. Smith, ballistics expert of Columbus.

Brown was found guilty by a jury April 12 of the killing of his wife, Beulah, 30, and Brady Petty, 57, in East Liverpool last Dec. 14.

Connie Mack Giving Athletic Fans Real Club This Season

Team Laces Bob Feller In Night Game; Newhouser On Old Form for End of Streak

BY JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 84-year-old gentleman, now in his 47th year as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is quietly answering his critics by giving the Athletic fans the best brand of baseball they have seen in more than a dozen years.

His much maligned Mackmen have won six of their last eight games including a 7-6 conquest of the mighty Bob Feller and the Cleveland Indians last night.

The Detroit Tigers retained their one game lead over the Boston Red Sox by shutting out the Washington Senators 8-0 before 17,983 capital city fans in a night game. Hal Newhouser ended his four-game losing streak by blanking the Nats with four singles.

The Boston Red Sox continued their upsurge by winning their seventh game in their last eight starts, trouncing the Chicago White Sox 19-6. Ted Williams made two of the Red Sox 19 hits, both homers. Aided by four home runs, three of them in succession in the sixth inning by Charlie Keller, Joe DiMaggio and Johnny Lindell, the New York Yankees opened their home swing with a 9-1 triumph over the St. Louis Browns.

Led by their first base rookie sensation, Earl Torgeson, the Boston Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-4. Torgeson hammered in five runs on two doubles, a single and his eighth homer of the season.

The St. Louis Cardinals were blanked by Lefty Dave Koslo who pitched the New York Giants to a 5-0 win with a neat two-hitter. With the aid of five walks in the third inning, the Cincinnati Reds scored four times and went on to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers 7-5 in a night game in Cincinnati. The Dodgers, who used 20 players including six pitchers, almost pulled the game out of the fire by scoring three runs in the ninth but Harry Gumbert fourth Cincinnati pitcher, replaced Clyde Shoun with two out, and the bases loaded and whiffed Catcher Bruce Edwards to end the game.

The scheduled Philadelphia-Pittsburgh game at Forbes field was postponed by rain.

Announce Winners Of Coon Dog Event

Coon dog trials at the Saxon club country grounds Sunday were successful, officials of the Salem Hunting club announced today. Results of the trials:

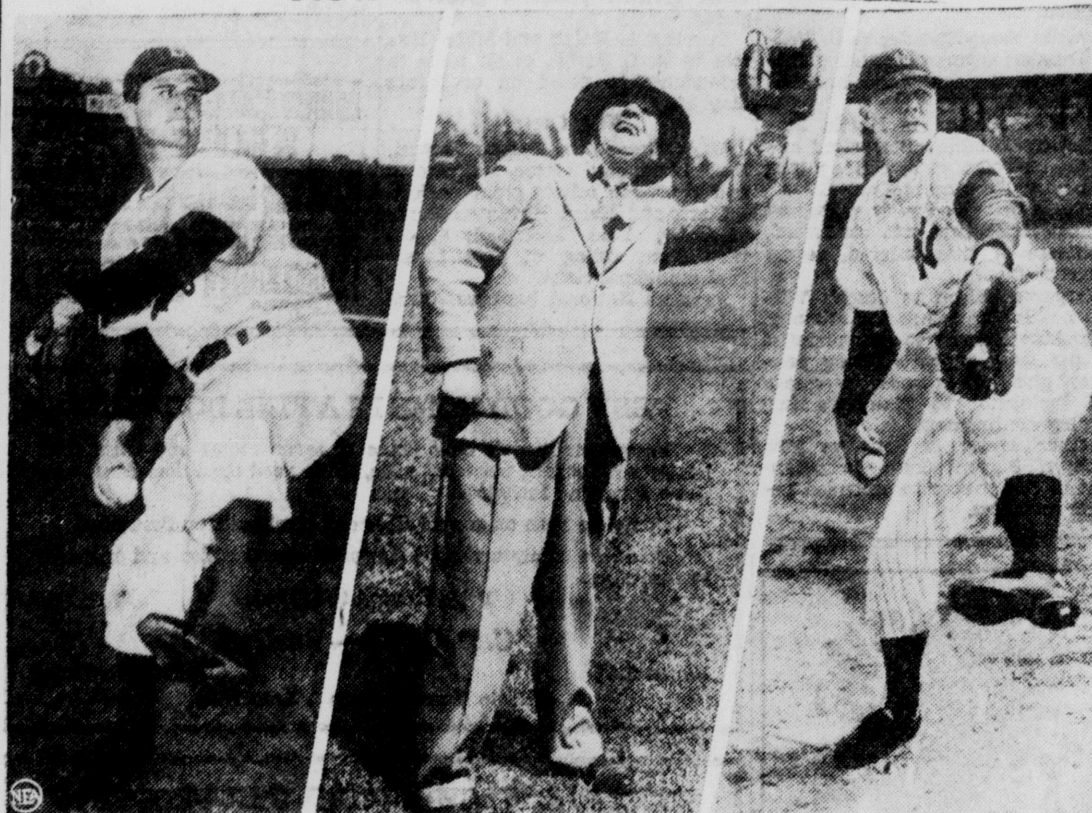

Tree finals: Won by "Lucky," owned by Eddy Smith of Akron; "Whisper Will," second, Hunt Brothers, Fremont.

Line finals: Won by "Breeze," owned by Ryland and Royer of Mansfield and second, "Cocky," owned by Walter Hash of Erie, Pa.

Entries totaled 120 dogs and more than 300 people attended the event.

Merchandise prizes went to Frank Coulson of Salem, William H. Adams of Salem and J. H. Groner of Columbiana. Cash prizes were awarded to Mrs. Price of Columbus and Mike Cien of Lowellville.

Now There Are Three

With the Brooklyn Dodgers bringing up right-hand pitcher Ed Chandler from the minors, the majors now have three Chanderls, equally dispersed in the two leagues and baseball's front office. Left to right, are: Ed, Happy, the baseball commissioner, and Spud, the Yankees' venerable hurler.

DEPARTMENT OF TRACK BITS

There's somewhat of a legend in Columbiana county over the annual feud between Fred Cope of Salem and Bill Ward of East Palestine, both track coaches, to cop the Columbiana county track title.

The legend is filled with tales growing over the years until, with embellishments added by time, they include enough material for a book. It is sometimes said that Ward and Cope annually try to see which can out-trick the other. It's a broad statement, but among the county's grid coaches, it's a common joke.

Fred and Bill do to great lengths to whip each other. Both at times lose themselves completely at county meets.

There's one story about Freddy that always struck home. A certain Salem track follower reports that a few years back he arrived late at the county meet (then at East Palestine) to find Cope pacing up and down outside the stadium. The meet was in progress and Cope, the coach, wasn't even inside watching his boys in action.

Asked what in the world he was doing out there, Cope became very confused and stammered "Why, I'm just out here worrying."

There are dozens of other stories about Cope at meets, but when he and Ward get together in a track session one can expect almost anything.

The annual county meet here Friday is among the oldest in the state and although it was abandoned for a few years, it is mainly through the efforts of Fred Cope and Bill Ward that the event has been kept going in recent years. They take their sport as seriously

Here's a revision of a previous prediction: Let's move the Printz club up to about third position in the National softball loop . . . It's a peppy and well-balanced club and seems slated for better than the seventh, as originally spotted . . . Pardon! . . . Watch for some natty dark blue with white trimming on the "precents" . . .
